

The studio of artists Maijeri

Craft

Alexander makes various musical instruments from natural materials - rattles, wind chimes and others, and teaches how to make reed poles. They have been making musical instruments since 1996, cooperating with the music publishing house "Upe" and the art salon "Grieži". Inga Maijere is definitely friends with nature. She makes musical instruments from natural materials – reed and wicker wind chimes, pumpkin rattles (from pumpkins grown in her garden), clay bells and rattles. Also performs graphic works - visual presentation and original design of the album of the group "Oroboro". When painting glass, beautiful stained-glass windows, light glasses (candlesticks), decorative dishes come out. Apply in advance!!
