

Didrihstein Manor House

The castle and the manor house have remained till today. The manor house was built of red bricks with a tower in the Neogothic style. There is a yard with a small building of red brick in front of the house. Victoria Plater-Zyberk was the owner of the estate in the early 20th century. It used to be an elementary school of Laucese.

Address: Laucese, Laucesa parish, Daugavpils region, Daugavpils nov.
