

Cottage "Meža skuķi"

Holidays house

Charming nature and serene relaxation on a Latgalian farmstead house for small group of people. A cottage is located on a bank of Iniksi forest lake. It is very special, retreat place, silence, peace, forest. The traditional bath waits for visitors in winter season also.

Separate guest cottage: living room with fireplace, kitchenette with all necessary equipment, 2 bedrooms, WC, shower, bath, balcony and the terrace with spectacular view of the lake.

The bath is available as separate service - calm conversation near the fireplace, herbal tea, herbal scrub, massage with honey. The optimum number of guests are 2 to 6 in winter season. The owner is professional sauna master and beekeeper.

Active rest: basketball hoop and a playground, mini-football and hockey gates, fishing, mushroom and berry picking.

Additional offers: rustic treats - organic vegetables, local honey, milk, food from the forest and garden; special Bath Day with professional sauna master.

The cottage have the Green Certificate.
