

Staņislavs Viļums

He is one of the four potters of „Pudnieku skūlas”, who waits for guests also on the opening of the stove. He doesn't use industrial equipments in his works, the stove is heated with firewood and in the glaze of vessels aren't used the noxious stuffs. The potter retells about the making black ceramics. The visitors can take part in the making ceramics and later buy some pieces of master's works.
