

Count Plater's Palace Complex in Kraslava

Many positive changes have taken place in Count Plater's Palace Complex, which is an architectural monument of national importance. The Palace Complex has already become a popular tourist and wedding destination and a place for walks for inhabitants of Kraslava.

Since 2004, Count Plater's Palace Complex has been owned by the Kraslava Municipality, which is actively working to promote the development of the palace and park territory. The development concept of the Palace Complex has been prepared. The vision of the concept - Plater's Palace Complex is a cultural and historical center of Kraslava, the pride of Kraslava and Latgale region, a widely visited and popular cultural, educational and tourism object. Kraslava Municipality implements various projects, which are funded by Municipal, State and European Union programs.

Each building of the complex performs its own function - Kraslava County Museum with various expositions, Kraslava Tourist Information Center, Olga Gribule's porcelain doll collection, restaurant "Fon Bubert" and Kraslava Craft Center, which was opened in 2021. Various cultural events, exhibition openings, fairs, excursions take place within the complex.

There are some beautiful environmental objects in the Palace Park, for example, metal carriage and the sculptures of Count and Countess. The idea of metal carriage belongs to residents of Kraslava, but installation was financed by the Municipality in 2015. The sculptures of Count and Countess, which are 2 meters high, were installed in 2020.
