

Pogulanka (Saliēna) Arch-shaped Stone Bridge

Active rest

The bridge across the Pogulanka river (Saliēna) was built at the end of 19th century from split and shaped boulders. Its arc height is 5,2 m, length 5,5 m, width 4,6 m. The bridge is a architectural monument of local meaning.

Address: Saliēna parish, Daugavpils region, Daugavpils nov.

E-mail: info@visitdaugavpils.lv

Home page: <http://www.visitdaugavpils.lv>

Coordinates: 55°49'17.1" N, 26°52'20.8" E

Cultural-historical objects

Description: The bridge over small river Pogulanka (Saliēna) was built at the end of 19. century. It was built of hewed boulders. The height of arch is 5.2 m, the length is 5.5, the width is 4.6 m. The bridge is local architectural and engineering monument. It is one of the few bridges of this type, which is stayed in good condition in Daugavpils region.

